

Bartec TPMS Expands Field Service Team

Robert Mathis joins the sales team as the field service representative for the greater Texas area.

Bartec TPMS announced the expansion of its field service team with the recent hire of Robert Mathis. Mathis will join Bartec TPMS North American sales team, as the field service representative for the greater Texas area.

Based in Dallas/Fort Worth, Mathis has spent the last nine years in the automotive industry, the last six years as a commercial outside salesperson for a leading automotive aftermarket parts provider, according to Bartec TPMS.

“Robert brings impressive credentials to our Field Service Team with a wealth of automotive aftermarket experience,” Bartec Director of Sales Ed Jones, said.
